

e- Appeal: General User Guide

October 13, 2023

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to e-Appeal! This General User Guide provides information that is applicable to all e-Appeal users: appellants, appellant representatives, and agency representatives. All agency users (agency representatives and agency legal support) as well as appellant attorney representatives (and their legal support) who are part of a law firm that has registered with the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) have additional functionality unique to their roles. Please see the user guides and information sheets specific to those roles that are separately posted on the MSPB e-Appeal Information Hub.

THE HOMEPAGE AND VIEWING YOUR CASES

After completing the e-Appeal registration process, as described in the Account Registration Guide, you can view your cases on your e-Appeal dashboard. The homepage for your e-Appeal dashboard displays your profile information and your cases.

Instructions & Information

Instructions for Your Pleading

You have selected the option to submit a pleading. A pleading is a written submission setting out claims, allegations, arguments, or evidence. Pleadings include briefs, motions, petitions, attachments, and responses. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.4(b). Through the MSPB e-Appeal pleading process, you can complete your pleading online or upload your prepared pleading and any attachments.

You must serve on each party a copy of each pleading and all attachments submitted with it. Prior to submitting your pleading, you will be asked to select options to complete the certificate of service showing how and when you will serve each party. MSPB's e-Appeal will serve a copy of your pleading and any attachments on all parties who are registered e-filers. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.14, 1201.26. If a party is not a registered e-filer, you must serve a copy of your pleading and all attachments to that party by the accepted method of service you selected on the certificate of service, i.e., U.S. mail, facsimile, or commercial or personal delivery. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.26(b)(2).

Please note that during the pleading submission process, you will be asked to certify whether the pleading and/or any attachments to your pleading contain sensitive PII information, such as (but not limited to) Social Security Numbers, driver's license numbers, Alien Registration numbers, financial or medical records, biometrics, or a criminal history. This is a required field that must be completed in order for your pleading to be successfully submitted.

Wherever you see red asterisks, *, during this process, this indicates a required field.

4. If applicable to you, on the Pleading Information page, select whether you are conducting the action on behalf of someone else. If so, select “Yes” and select the name of the individual on behalf of whom you are conducting the action from the drop-down menu. (This option appears only for users who have been authorized by agency representatives and certain appellant attorney representatives to provide legal support in their cases.) Select “Next.”

5. On the Pleading Information page, select the Pleading Type on the drop-down menu and select “Next.”

- Pleading Types: The pleading types available on your drop-down menu will depend on your role and the stage of the appeal (i.e., whether the appeal is pending before an MSPB regional or field office, closed before an MSPB regional or field office, or pending before the full Board).
- Designations of Representative: Users in the roles of Appellant, Agency Representative, and Agency Legal Support have the e-Appeal pleading option of Designation of Representative and may follow the prompts in this pleading option to submit a designation of representative in any case.

Users in the role of Appellant Representative do not have the Designation of Representative pleading option in e-Appeal. An appellant representative can file a designation of representative by submitting a pleading signed by the appellant. This pleading, signed by the appellant, can be filed with the appropriate MSPB office via fax, mail, or commercial delivery. Newly designated appellant representatives, even if registered e-filers in e-Appeal, will not have access to a case in e-Appeal until the designation of representative pleading is received and processed by MSPB staff to add the appellant representative as an active party on the appeal.

Review & Submit

Your pleading has successfully validated. Please select one of the following three options.

- Print Draft - Use this option to review your answers in printed copy before final submission.
- Submit - Once you are sure that your pleading is ready for submission use this option to immediately deliver your pleading to MSPB. Once you submit your pleading, you will not be able to update or correct any data online. Corrections will have to be sent to the MSPB office to which the pleading was submitted. You will be able to print a copy for your records and receive a checklist of attachments at the end of this process.
- Save and Exit - Use this option if you are not ready to submit your pleading at this time. Your e-appeal will be saved for 90 days, during which time you can return, update and submit.

14. After you submit your pleading, it should appear on the case record. You also will have access to it in your “Pleading Listing.”

ARCHIVED CASES

Your Dashboard Queues will include a “My Archived Assigned Cases” queue. The cases in this queue are cases that have been closed for over 180 days. E-Appeal automatically moves cases that have been closed for 180 days from the queue on your homepage to the “My Archived Assigned Cases” queue.

CHANGING YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION

Updating your contact information in e-Appeal is a two-step process: (1) you must first update your contact information in your e-Appeal Profile and then (2) you must file a pleading in all pending cases. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.26. The pleading you file provides notice to the parties and MSPB and is included in the case record.

Updating your Contact Information in Your e-Appeal Profile:

1. Navigate to “Quick Links” on your Dashboard and select “My Profile.”

2. Update the applicable fields and then select “Save & Exit.”
3. If you change your email address, you will receive an email notification at your new email address asking you to verify the new email address.
4. When you update contact information in your profile, e-Appeal automatically drafts a Change of Contact Information Pleading for you to complete in each of your pending cases.

Filing a Change of Contact Information Pleading in Your Pending Cases:

1. Navigate to a pending case in which you are filing a Change of Contact Information pleading. As referenced above, a draft Change of Contact Information pleading has been automatically generated and is available for your completion on the Pleading Listing, titled, “Contact Information Change.”

Pleading Listing				New
Pleading Type	Pleading Title	Submission Date	Status	Action
Change of Contact Information	Contact Information Change		Pleading Draft	→

Rows per page: 25 ▾ 1-1 of 1 < >

2. Finish submitting your Change of Contact Information pleading. This pleading provides notice to the parties and MSPB and is included in the case record. You will not be permitted to file any other pleading in your pending cases until you complete and submit the generated Change of Contact Information pleading in each pending case. Ensure that you submit a Change of Contact Information pleading in each pending case.

Instructions and Information

Instructions for Your New Case Proceeding

You have selected the option to submit an addendum. An addendum is a written submission setting out claims, allegations, arguments, or evidence. Pleadings include briefs, motions, petitions, attachments, and responses. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.4(b). Through the MSPB e-Appeal pleading process, you can complete your pleading online or upload your prepared pleading and any attachments.

You must serve on each party a copy of each pleading and all attachments submitted with it. Prior to submitting your pleading, you will be asked to select options to complete the certificate of service showing how and when you will serve each party. MSPB's e-Appeal will serve a copy of your pleading and any attachments on all parties who are registered e-filers. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.14, 1201.26. If a party is not a registered e-filer, you must serve a copy of your pleading and all attachments to that party by the accepted method of service you selected on the certificate of service, i.e., U.S. mail, facsimile, or commercial or personal delivery. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.26(b)(2).
